

Joint Mortgage Mum - LIBF scholarship (CeMAP qualification pathway – no job guarantee)

Purpose of the Initiative

This Scholarship is designed to support individuals from backgrounds who may not normally be able to access or afford the CeMAP qualification, helping to widen participation within the mortgage and financial services profession.

Eligibility Criteria

Applicants must:

- Be aged 18 or over
- Have the right to work in the UK
- Be based in the UK
- Not currently hold the CeMAP qualification (or equivalent)
- Be unable to self-fund CeMAP due to financial or personal circumstances
- Be committed to pursuing a career in mortgage advice
- Be willing and able to complete the Joint Mortgage Mum - LIBF Scholarship programme, including exams, assessments, and structured mentoring

Qualification & Study Requirements

- All three CeMAP modules must be passed within an 18-month period from the start date of study
- Learners must engage fully with the Mortgage Mum - LIBF learning Scholarship program
- Monthly mentoring check-ins are mandatory and form a critical part of the Scholarship support and progression
- Apprentices must demonstrate consistent progress and commitment throughout the programme

Desired Backgrounds & Circumstances

(Applicants do not need to meet all of the below)

We particularly welcome applications from individuals who:

- Are from lower-income or underrepresented backgrounds
- Are career changers, returners to work, or parents re-entering the workforce
- Have faced financial, educational, or social barriers to professional qualifications
- Have not followed a traditional academic or corporate career path

- Are currently working in customer service, administration, sales, care, or support roles

Skills & Attributes We're Looking For

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- A genuine interest in helping people with significant life and financial decisions
- High standards of integrity and professionalism
- A proactive attitude to learning and self-development
- Good numeracy and literacy skills
- Confidence using digital tools and systems
- Ability to manage time effectively and balance study with other commitments

Commitment Requirements

Applicants must be able to:

- Commit to completing all three CeMAP modules within 18 months
- Attend and actively participate in monthly mentoring check-ins
- Complete independent study, coursework, and exams alongside practical learning
- Engage positively with feedback, guidance, and development support

Important Information

- This Scholarship does not guarantee employment with The Mortgage Mum upon completion
- Progression into a Mortgage Adviser role will depend on individual performance, regulatory requirements, and business needs
- The programme is designed to enhance employability across the wider mortgage and financial services industry
- Selection is competitive and based on potential, motivation, and values, not academic history alone

Equal Opportunities Statement

The Mortgage Mum is committed to equality, diversity, and inclusion.

We welcome applications from all backgrounds and do not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, ethnicity, disability, religion, sexual orientation, or family circumstances.
